VOL. XI., NO. 142. FRESNO, CALIFORNIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 13, 1896. PRICE—5 CENTS.

NINETY-SIX CONTESTS

Considered by the Republican Committee.

SEVENTY STILL TO BE DECIDED

New Basis of Representation Proposed—Hobart in the Lead for Vice President.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—Up to 11 o'clock tonight the Republican committee had taken action upon contests involving ninety-six seats for the forthcoming national convention, leaving seventy still to be passed upon. Of these ninety-six, thirty-six were disposed of today. These thirty-six included the contests on the delegates-at-large from Delaware, Louisiana and Arizona, and district delegates from Virginia, Mississippi and Louisiana. There was special interest in the contest from Delaware between the Addicks and Higgins factions. The proceedings in this contest were of a very spirited character, and the remarks made by Senator Higgins and Mr. Addicks were very personal and acrimonious. In this case neither delegation was seated.

In the Arizona contests the members of each delegation were awarded a half seat each. Of the sixteen delegates seated from Louisiana, five were for Reed and the others for McKinley.

The committee voted to proceed tomorrow in the contests in the order reached, whether the parties at interest are present or not.

When the afternoon session opened today the Delaware contest was called, but ex-Senator Higgins, heading one of the Delaware delegations, asked that it should be postponed until the arrival of Mr. Addicks, who heads the other delegation. It was announced that Mr. Addicks would be here at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The state was temporarily passed.

The Louisiana contests were then considered. All the seats from this state, including those of the four delegates at large, and the twelve district delegates, are contested. From the state at large the chairman of the state committee certified the election of A. A. Maginnis, R. H. Rackney, E. N. Carney and A. Dougherty. All these were instructed for McKinley. Of the contesting delegates, Hon. William Pitt Kellogg and A. H. Leonard are for McKinley; Henry Demas and J. M. Vance for Reed.

J. M. Behan appeared for the Maginnis delegation. He said there were two Republican state committees, but that by which his convention was called was the one which had made the fight of the Republican party two years ago and represented the revolt against the rule of Mr. Kellogg, who, he claimed, was a non-resident. He represented what he called the new Republican party, which had grown out of the opposition to the Democratic party on the tariff, and said that the new Republicans had not found it agreeable to affiliate with the old Republican party as it had been managed for years. They therefore met and organized a state committee. Mr. Behan asserted that the Republican party had made very rapid progress since its organization and said with proper encouragement Louisiana could be made a Republican state.

After Mr. Behan had concluded his speech, and without requiring any statement on behalf of Kellogg, the Kellogg delegation was seated. This action was taken on the motion of Mr. Hahn of Ohio, because the committee under which the Maginnis delegation was elected was not considered regular. It was felt, however, that the new Republicans in Louisiana should be encouraged and they were recalled by the committee to allow Chairman Carter to explain the reasons for the committee's decision. This he did, explaining the action of the committee was necessarily technical. He said the committee could not, under its rules, go behind the verdict of the regular party organization.

In the First Louisiana district ex-Governor H. C. Warmouth and Walter H. Cohen (for McKinley) were recognized as the certified delegates, and C. W. Booth and J. W. Davis (Reed men) as the contestants.

It was asserted on behalf of the contestants that the same questions were involved in the district contests as in the state contests. Governor Warmouth took exception to this assertion in presenting the claims of his delegation, saying that the committee under which his convention was held had been in existence for a quarter of a century. Warmouth and Cohen were seated. They are identified with the sugar planting wing of the party.

The contest in the Second Louisiana district was between T. A. Wimberley and Richard Simms, contestees, and Morris Marks and Lucien Como, contestants, the controversy existing, as in the other cases, upon the regularity of the conventions.

Wimberley and Simms were seated. They are McKinley men. The contestants are for Reed.

The contestants from the Third Louisiana district, L. S. Clark and J. W. Behan, and the contestees, Thomas A. Cage and Myer Cahn, are all McKinley men, but the factions which they represent divided over the question of organization, the fight involving a controversy between the old and the new element in the party. Cage and Cahn represented the old element. Mr. Cage, a colored man and chairman of the state central committee, appeared in behalf of his delegation and made a vigorous speech. He contended that the sugar planters had only become Republicans upon the repeal of the sugar bounty, and declared the colored men had been notified that they would henceforth have to take a back seat in the Republican party. On motion of Mr. Hahn both delegations were seated, each of the delegates with a half vote in the convention.

Hon. J. E. Addicks, heading the delegation from Delaware, which bears his name, arrived at 3 o'clock today and immediately proceeded to the hall where contests over seats in the Republican convention are being heard. He announced his readiness to proceed immediately with the contest between his delegation and that headed by Hon. Anthony Higgins.

In the Fourth district the contest was between Reed men and McKinley men, B. F. Neal and W. A. Harper represented the Reed element and D. S. Ferri and C. C. Antoine standing for McKinley. Neal and Harper were seated.

The contests from the Fifth and Sixth Louisiana districts were settled without argument, I. B. Donnelly and S. W. Green being seated from the Fifth and T. B. Brooks and W. W. Johnson from the Sixth. All four are McKinley men.

These concluded the Louisiana contests and the Third district of Virginia was taken up. The contestants were not present. Edward Waddill Jr., and C. W. Harris (McKinley) were seated without argument.

Mr. Wilson of Deleware moved a reconsideration of the votes by which Messrs. Sapp and Todd were yesterday seated from the First Kentucky district. Mr. Yerkes, committeeman from Kentucky, favored the motion, basing his argument upon the ground that its adoption would be to promote the interests of the party in that state. The motion was opposed by General Clayton and others on the ground that its adoption would constitute a bad precedent and open the doors for similar proceedings in many other cases. The motion was not pressed and no vote was taken. It will probably be taken up later. The committee then took a recess until 7.30 p.m.

EVENING SESSION.

Six Delegates to be Allowed from Each Territory.

The evening session was opened with a discussion of the number of delegates which should be allowed in the convention to the territories.

Mr. Catron of New Mexico moved that the names of six delegates be placed on the roll from each of the territories of Arizona, New Mexico and Oklahoma, and Mr. Clayton offered an amendment suggesting that the committee recommend to the convention to add four to the Indian Territory delegation, so as to give that territory six, which was accepted by Mr. Catron. Ex-Senator Carey of Wyoming supported the motion, urging liberal treatment for the territories. The motion as amended was adopted.

On motion of Senator Thurston, the committee adopted a resolution recommending that the various state delegations must not later than Monday next elect their members of the convention committee in order to prevent delay in the convention.

These preliminaries being disposed of, the Delaware contest was taken up. There are six delegates at large from this state and no district delegates, the entire state being embraced in one congressional district. One of the delegations, claiming to be the regular one, is headed by ex-Senator Anthony Higgins and the other by Hon. J. Edward Addicks. The contest has aroused much interest on account of the prominence of the leaders and the sharp contest which has been waged between them for years, as well as because of the events of the campaign which has resulted in the present contest.

The time for the presentation of this case was increased to twenty minutes for each side. Mr. Higgins presented the main argument on behalf of his delegation, maintaining the regularity of the proceedings in the case of that delegation and the irregularity of the other convention. He asserted that of the 100 delegates in Mr. Addick's convention 23 were chosen by irregular and dishonorable means. These were from the city of Wilmington and were elected through bribery.

"As between Republicans," continued Mr. Higgins, "this might not be proper matter for discussion, but J. Edward Addicks is no Republican, he is a political bandit and has no place here nor in any other decent political society."

Mr. Higgins was followed by Mr. Washington Hastings, who declared Mr. Addicks was consumed by an ambition to be United States senator—an office for which Mr. Hastings declared Addicks had not one qualification. He also charged Mr. Addicks with having defeated the election of a Republican senator from Delaware.

Dr. Layton spoke for Mr. Addicks, deprecating the "washing of dirty linen" before the committee. He contended for the regularity of the convention by which the Addicks delegation was chosen, asserting that the Higgins delegation was chosen by a bolting convention.

Mr. Addicks, speaking for himself, said he had been a Republican since the days of Lincoln, for whom he had voted, and he had been a Republican voter in Delaware for nineteen years.

"I made Anthony Higgins senator and I whipped him; hence these tears," exclaimed Mr. Addicks.

Replying, Mr. Higgins denied that Addicks had had anything to do with his election and declared he had never heard of him until the day after the election, when Addicks had announced himself as a candidate for the senate.

"Before that time" he said, "I had never seen or heard of him, and he comes here, the moral pilot that he is, to make an appeal to you, the elect of the great Republican party, to sustain him."

The committee went into executive session. Many motions were made and amendments and substitutes offered, only to be withdrawn and then offered in different shape. Half of the members of the committee made speeches and all of them spoke earnestly, some of them vehemently.

Mr. Sutherland moved to amend a motion by Mr. Evans, making the resolution read: "The committee declines to seat either delegation."

The amendment was agreed to and the resolution adopted by a vote of 41 to 9.

The Arizona contest was next considered. The contestants in this case were M. H. McCord, J. H. Cleveland, J. M. Ford, C. M. Wright, C. H. Akers and J. W. Dorrington and the contestees W. A. Christy, J. Stoddard, Burt Dunlap, R. H. Cameron, J. L. Mahoney and J. A. Zabriskie.

The contestees are for McKinley, while the contestants are for various other candidates, including Allison, Reed and Morton.

Judge Thompson made a brief statement for the McKinley delegation, and was followed by Mr. Stoddard for the Christy delegates. Mr. Stoddard claimed that his delegation was the regular one, that the other delegation was chosen by a bolting convention composed of twenty-seven half-votes, and one full vote, and that ten remained after the bolt to take in the regular convention.

General Wright spoke for the contestants, claiming the seats of more than a quorum of the convention were contested, and that therefore the convention was not competent to transact business. Nevertheless the convention proceeded.

The committee voted to award a half-vote to each of the two delegations.

The contest of Benjamin Walker (a Reed man) against Douglass Smith (for McKinley) for one of the seats of the Fifth Alabama district, was taken up and decided in favor of Smith. This case had been passed when the other Alabama contests were considered.

At 11.15 the committee adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow.

HOBART IN THE LEAD.

The Present Choice for Vice Presidential Candidate.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—The principal development of the day has been the argument upon a gold standard plank for the platform. It has been asserted in those dispatches for several days that this would be done, but today the matter was settled so far as it could be in advance of the convention. The incoming delegates from every section swelled the sentiment for an unequivocal declaration for the gold standard and against the free coinage of silver. There have been arrivals of some prominent men, among them being Senator Quay, Cornelius M. Bliss, General Horace Porter, Hon. Charles Foster and General Grosvenor.

The vice presidential candidacy has been discussed a great deal, with conclusions indicating that Hobart of New Jersey is the coming man at present.

The rather savage talk from Platt has assumed a milder tone.

Delegations have begun to arrive and shouters and brass bands are heard in the streets and corridors. St. Louis has begun taking on a real convention aspect.

A most important conference was held in Senator Quay's rooms tonight, at which Senator Quay himself, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hahn, national committeeman from Ohio, Hobart of New Jersey, Hon. Samuel Fessenden of Connecticut and W. Andrews of Pennsylvania, were present, and at which it was practically arranged that Mr. Quay should retire from the contest for the Presidency.

He said the contests which were now under consideration by the national committee were of little or no consequence, but it was evident that McKinley already had over 500 uncast votes, making it evident that the people demanded his nomination.

He acquiesced in the suggestion that McKinley should be nominated by acclamation, and said the sooner the convention performed its work and adjourned the better it would be.

BASIS OF REPRESENTATION.

National Committeeman Payne's New Plan.

ST. LOUIS, June 12.—National Committeeman Payne will press his resolution for a different representation in the national conventions. He wants the national committee to recommend to the convention the following:

Resolved, That the national committee recommend to the convention that hereafter the basis of representation of the several states shall be fixed at four delegates at large and one additional delegate for each 7000 votes or major fraction thereof cast in each state for the Republican electoral ticket at the last preceding election, and that each territory and the District of Columbia be entitled to six delegates.

On the basis of the votes cast at the election of 1804 the representation would be as follows, as compared with the representation in the present convention:

STATE.	PRESENT.	NEW.
Alabama	22	17
Arkansas	17	14
California	18	24
Colorado	8	12
Connecticut	12	20
Delaware	6	11
Florida	8	10
Georgia	26	19
Idaho	6	9
Illinois	48	54
Indiana	30	60

New Mexico	2	6
Oklahoma	2	6

The scenes through which the national committee has passed during the few days it has been considering contests, will probably influence them to favorably consider Mr. Payne's resolution.

WILL CUT MERCED OFF

NOT IN SYMPATHY WITH THE YOSEMITE ROAD.

Citizens Refuse to Assist the Projectors of the Enterprise.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—A. L. Stetson and the other gentlemen interested in the proposed railroad from Merced into the Yosemite valley are very indignant at the refusal of the citizens of Merced to meet them half way in the matter of terminal facilities and rights of way.

General Manager A. L. Stetson of the new road, in talking about the attitude of the Merced people towards his company, said:

"The people of Merced do not seem to be in sympathy with our enterprise and if that is so I am opposed to building into that town. We will have a meeting here on next Tuesday to definitely decide on our route. We had intended to build a bridge over the Merced river at Snelling and run fourteen miles south into Merced. I rather think now we will not touch Merced at all, but keep on the north side of the river altogether.

"Starting at Snelling, we probably will run twenty-four miles west to the Southern Pacific near either Ceres, Keyes, Turlock or Delhi. In that event we will change the name of the company to the Yosemite Valley Railroad Company. East of Snelling we will run up the Merced river canyon to the Yosemite valley. I am certain congress will grant us permission to cross the Yosemite National Park. Colonel S. M. B. Young of the Fourth cavalry is acting superintendent of the latter park and he is now arranging to make a report to the secretary of war as to our route."

Crushed to Death.

STOCKTON, June 12.—Lewis Durbin, an aged citizen of Lodi, was killed this morning while loading lumber on a wagon. The horses ran away and Durbin was thrown beneath the wagon and crushed to death.

SILVER MEN SOUNDED

Senators Teller and Dubois Interviewed.

TARIFF WILL CUT LITTLE FIGURE

Both Non-committal as to Whether They Will Bolt a Gold Standard Platform.

CINCINNATI, June 12.—Senator and Mrs. Teller remained here tonight while en route from Washington to St. Louis. They resume their journey tomorrow.

Senator Teller was interviewed by the Enquirer, the free silver organ, as follows:

"What do you think the Republicans will do at St. Louis, Senator?"

"I think that McKinley will be the nominee on a gold standard platform."

"In that event what will you do?"

"I do not wish to make any statement further than that which is already on record. When the Republican state convention of Colorado was in session I telegraphed that I did not desire to go to St. Louis, but that if my party sent me I would not support a gold standard candidate for President on a gold standard platform or on a platform of doubtful import, or in other words, a straddle. Not only did the convention elect me, but instructed the other delegates to be governed by my action. I did not like that, because it is rather embarrassing that other men should be forced to do as I might do."

"Then you will bolt the convention?"

"I did not say anything about that, but my declaration to the Republicans of Colorado is on record and you can draw whatever conclusion you please from that."

"Will any of the other silver senators from the west refuse to support a gold standard man?"

"Certainly."

"You have an idea that Senator Carter of Montana, chairman of the Republican national committee, will refuse to support the ticket under such circumstances?"

"Yes, he will, and so will Dubois, Mantle and Cannon."

"Do you believe the Democrats will go for silver?"

"It looks very strongly that way."

"Would you support a free silver Democrat as against a gold Republican?"

"Really, I do not wish to be interviewed on that point now. I go to St. Louis as a Republican, representing the Republicans of my state. The Republican party has not as yet put itself on record as a gold standard party, and until that time I have nothing to say further than my record before the Colorado state convention."

The inevitable conclusion drawn from the talk with Senator Teller is that he will bolt if a gold standard ticket and platform is named.

He was asked further:

"What figure will the tariff question cut in the campaign?"

"Not much. All the tariff in the world won't help this country without the free and unlimited coinage of silver. If the Republicans should elect McKinley on a tariff platform, the times would not improve, and in two years the discontent of the people would wipe the party out of existence."

Among the callers of Senator Teller were ex-Senator Henry W. Blair and Hon. W. D. Wilson, the Indiana Republican who is actively advocating free silver.

SENATOR DUBOIS.

There Can be no Compromise on the Financial Issue.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—Senator Dubois of Idaho, who is Senator Teller's chief lieutenant in the fight for free silver, will leave tomorrow for St. Louis where he will join the Colorado senator and the other Republican silver men.

"We will make the fight for silver," said Mr. Dubis tonight, "in the committee on resolutions and on the floor of the convention. We believe a majority of the Republicans of the country believe in the coinage of silver on the same terms as gold and that should have been the interpretation of the platform adopted at Minneapolis. If we fail we shall go down with our colors flying."

"Would a compromise be acceptable to you?"

"The time for compromises is past," replied Mr. Dubois. "There can be no compromise issue. It is plain and clear cut."

"In the event the convention adopts a platform unsatisfactory to you and the other silver Republicans, what will be your course?"

"What we will do if the platform does not declare for silver," responded Mr. Dubois, "is a matter for the future to determine. We will battle for our convictions to the bitter end. If the majority is against us, we will act as our best judgment dictates."

Women in Convention.

OAKLAND, June 12.—The State Woman's Suffrage convention met in this city today. Mrs. A. A. Sargent, president of the association, in her opening address dwelt on the progress of the work, and predicted that at the November election women will be enfranchised. Miss Anna Shaw, Miss Harriet May Mills of Syracuse, N.Y., and others addressed the convention.

The Fight Will Come Off.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—The civic federation has decided to make no attempt to prevent the Corbett-Sharkey fight, and will leave the matter to the discretion of the Chief of Police. The federation will appoint a committee to attend the fight to observe if the law is violated.

Child Roasted in a Barn.

STOCKTON, June 12.—The little daughter of William Young at Lockeford, aged 2½ years, went into a barn on the home place today with some matches and accidentally set the place on fire. The barn and contents were burned and the body of the child was found a mass of roasted flesh.

RECIPROCITY THE REMEDY.

We are buying largely from the South American states, but we do not seem to be able to sell them a tithe of what we should. They are maintaining a republican form of government, and were a foreign monarchy to attempt to make conquest of either one of them an appeal would quickly be made to the United States for armed intervention; but when it comes to commerce they are perfectly willing that we should buy their products, and they are equally willing to pass by on the other side of us and buy their merchandise in Europe. Something should be done to remedy this injustice to our merchants and manufacturers.—S. F. Call

The reciprocity feature of the Republican protective system is the means by which the trade of our sister republics of the south may be diverted from foreign channels to the United States. The trade balances should not be against us with South American republics, and it will not long be so if we establish in connection with a protective tariff reciprocal trade relations with them.

The rapid gains which we made in our exports to Brazil during the comparatively brief period that the reciprocity clause of the tariff was in effect fully demonstrated the advantages which may be realized under that system. Statistics show that during one year from the time a treaty was effected with Brazil under the McKinley law our principal articles of export to that country were nearly doubled in volume, and in some instances were more than doubled.

There is nothing like experience to satisfactorily demonstrate a proposition, and it is entirely unnecessary to look farther for a remedy for our unsatisfactory trade relations with the Latin states of South America than the achievements made under our reciprocity treaties.

THE SILVER "FALLACY."

It is but a few months since the goldbugs announced through their organs that the agitation in favor of the free coinage of silver was dead. They repeated the announcement over and over, with visible signs of exhileration in considering the alleged fact. But it was noticeable that, while they announced, they continued to fight the dead "fallacy." Their organs were no less persistent in announcing that it was a fallacy, and their "sound money" literature was sent to editors all over the country, sometimes to be published and sometimes to add to the contents of waste paper baskets. If they were correct in their announcement, they were kicking a corpse, which is an unusual proceeding, but they kicked not the less.

But as time has passed on it has become more and more apparent that if the silver "fallacy" is dead, the "remains" display an unwonted amount of activity. A livelier corpse never refused to be buried. The West is so nearly a unit in advocating the free coinage of the white metal that only in one or two states has any party failed to declare for it. In this state Republicans, Populists and Prohibitionists have free silver planks in their platforms, and the Democracy will follow their suit. The South is only a degree less united than the West in its demand for silver. In brief, so far as the financial question is concerned, it is the East against the West and South. It is the lender against the borrower, the absorber against the absorbed.

This dead "fallacy" has turned the great Democratic party against its natural leader, and it even has divided the Prohibition party of morals into warring factions. It has infused the breath of life into the new Silver party, and has caused the Populists to cast but a few lingering glances at the fiat money of their love. Were the Republican party not assured of victory in the approaching election, it is impossible for any person to say how seriously it might not have been affected by the financial question, for the faith of many a Republican in the white metal is only second to his faith in protection, and it is his belief that in voting his party ticket he will help to insure such protection that holds him in line.

A "fallacy" which produces such results as this is not very dead. On the contrary, it is very much alive. The growth of the sentiment in favor of the free coinage of silver is something surprising even to its advocates. It is but a brief time since the people really began to realize the enormity of the program to give to a few men the management of the world's money supply, yet already that realization unites great masses of people and threatens the existence of a party that has lived through a century. It is a strange "fallacy" which produces such results, and the cry that it is dead, even while its wonderful effect is witnessed, is in brazen defiance of truth. The demand for silver is not dead nor dying. On the contrary, it is vigorously alive, and it is only a question of time until the national lawmakers will be compelled to heed it.

McKinley and protection will win, but McKinley, protection and bimetallism would place the Republican party in the position it should occupy—a position which it will be compelled to take in the near future. A party can not go far ahead of public sentiment, neither can it afford to lag behind it. Bimetallism is coming, either by international agreement or otherwise, and the sooner the party of protection realizes it the better it will be for it.

The Tulare Register protests against the inclination of the dog-loving population of that town to breed bull pups. It is tough, of course, but the editor will probably have to buy his watermelons this year.

People who have been anxiously inquiring "what is the matter with Hanna," have about come to the conclusion that that party is all right.

The report of the superintendent of the Stockton insane asylum shows a condition of affairs which is phenomenal in one respect. Briefly stated, it is that the expenses of the asylum for the fiscal year have been about $10,000 less than the appropriation. The people of California are used to seeing the expenses of public institutions exceed the appropriations, but they are not accustomed to having appropriations exceed expenses. Nevertheless, any shock which the report from the Stockton asylum may give them will be gratefully received. That such institutions have been run at too high a financial pressure has not been doubted, but the citizens had almost wearied of looking for an improvement. The case should be a precedent, but whether it will or not remains to be seen.

On Tuesday the national Republican convention will ratify the nomination of William McKinley. He was nominated by the people some time ago.

RANDOM REMARKS.

There is a place where icebergs drift
Through cold and colder seas,
Where polar monsters slide and shift
And days are full of freeze;
A place where furs are quite the thing
On every day to wear,
Where summer's early in the spring—
I wish that I were there.

It was all right for John Hays Hammond to pay $125,000 in order to get out of a Boer prison if he desired to do so, but, for the writer's part, he would rot there first. If it were a dollar and a quarter, now, it would do to think about, but $125,000—never! Not only would it be a matter of principle with us, but we would not wish to spare the spending money. It would reduce our annual salary to a merely nominal sum. It is all right for Mr. Hammond, but we would sternly refuse to make any such sacrifice of principle—and interest.

Senator Vilas assures the public that President Cleveland will vote for McKinley in the event that the Democratic party declares for the free coinage of silver. There is no law to prevent, but may a gracious Heaven interpose. Republicans do not want His Eminent Fatness more than the Democracy does. If Cleveland really does vote for McKinley, why would it not be an appropriate act for somebody to pray that he may be stricken dumb, so that he cannot tell about it? The responsibility for the present incumbrance of the White House heretofore has not been on the Republican party, and it does not desire to assume it now.

Human beings have their peculiarities, and the pursuit of Murderer Dunham exhibits one of them. It is not much of a citizen who cannot "see" the multiple assassin, or at least obtain a clue to his whereabouts. Is a riderless horse found somewhere? Dunham must have ridden him. Does a footpad "hold up" a man? Dunham was the footpad. Is a stray gunnysack discovered in a mountain canyon? Dunham left it there. Does an old woman miss a chicken or two from her henyard? Dunham was hungry and concluded to eat. A half dozen times in any day he is "seen" in places dotted over a stretch of country extending from San Francisco to Santa Barbara. Bogtown is convinced that he is hanging about its outskirts, and Milpitas leisurely sends in an announcement of his presence in that vicinity. A community where the murderer cannot be discovered is too unprogressive for California. We have sleepy towns here, but none so sleepy that it cannot rub an eye open long enough to see Dunham. And in the meantime the atrocious villain is at large and appears likely to remain so. The only consolation the people have in the matter is contained in the pleasing conviction that they are mighty good see-ers.

"If we are to take the cases of Durrant, Blanther, Herrmann, Dunham and Holmes as evidences in favor of higher education, then all argument in favor of mental elevation falls so far as subduing a brutal nature is concerned. There is nothing in criminal jurisprudence that surpasses the brutality of these men, and yet they were all educated and demonstrated an ambition for higher knowledge seldom found in the average mortal."—Salinas Owl.

There are one or two things to be said about that. In the first place, none of these men, unless it is Hermanns, of whose education the writer has no information, could be an example of what a higher education will do for a man, because they did not possess such an education. Holmes was a man of a little more than ordinary education, with some medical education placed on top of it; Dunham is a sullen, sodden sort of a brute with a quite ordinary education, and Durrant's ignorance and comparative illiteracy have been widely advertised in the ungrammatical and idealess scrawls which he has sent out from the San Francisco jail. As for "an ambition for higher knowledge seldom found in the average mortal," in Dunham it took the shape of a shambling effort to secure a knowledge of shorthand and typewriting, while in Durrant it expressed itself in the effort (often enough made) to secure a profession for a man who was better adapted to carrying a hod. So much for the "higher education" of these fiends. Now to another point: As a matter of fact, the higher education, as it is currently understood—that is, the education of the colleges and universities—is principally an education of the intellectual, and not of the moral, nature of young people. The curriculum of such an institution of learning provides for the development of intellect, but the student is very largely left to educate his moral nature as chance may dictate. We have no such thing as a school of morals. It would not be strange, then, if the Owl's assertion is correct, while its illustration is unfortunate. Morals are left to care for themselves about as much in universities as in other places, and it certainly is a fact that to know all sciences does not necessarily make a person good. There is a higher education which tends to goodness, but it is a different thing from the ordinary education of our schools.

Japanese Explorers.

Japan, too, has keen explorers. The professor of astronomy in the university of Tokyo, Mr. Nomaka, accompanied by his wife, last October ascended Mount Fujiyama, 13,000 feet high, to make meteorological observations in the course of the winter. A short time ago word was received that the professor was dying, and a relief expedition was fitted out. With great difficulty the members of the expedition reached the snow covered hut. Professor Nomaka was found to be exceedingly weak and unable to move, but his wife had suffered no evil results from the exposure. Nomaka was taken back to Tokyo, but he declares he will return next winter, and his wife says she will accompany him again.

Where the Bee Works.

Properly considered, a beehive is a wonderful shop, and each individual insect is a curiosity. The inhabitants of a hive are classed as drones, workers and queens. The queen is the mother of every insect in the hive unless she has been installed instead of a queen who had died and left the hive without a mistress. The queen bee is the wonder of the whole insect tribe as far as egg laying is concerned, often depositing 4,000 eggs a day for days in succession during the most productive season. The chief wonder connected with the worker bee is the admirable manner in which his body is shaped and fitted with instruments for honey gathering. These natural instruments consist of cups, combs, brushes, knives, funnels, scrapers, etc., each of which is worthy of a week of careful and painstaking study under a high grade microscope.—Chicago Chronicle.

Charity.

Charity is a universal duty, which it is in every man's power sometimes to practice, since every degree of assistance given to another, upon proper motives, is an act of charity, and there is scarcely any man in such a state of imbecility as that he may not, on some occasions, benefit his neighbor.—Johnson.

THE CAUSE OF THE TROUBLE

T. E. Norris Defends the Name of His Sister-in-law, Miss Hayes.

About 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon excitement was caused at the corner of J and Mariposa by T. E. Norris who met J. G. Ramer and proceeded to lay on with a piece of loaded hose pipe across Ramer's head and face, every blow loud enough to be heard a block. Ramer yelled with pain and ran for the other side of the street, pursued by Norris, who struck as fast as possible, until Deputy Sheriff Timmins arrived and placed Norris under arrest.

William Bell, one of the actors who has been stranded in Fresno since the Rose Stillman Company was disbanded, interfered with Timmins while making the arrest and was himself taken to jail, but was subsequently released. He claimed that he did not know Timmins was an officer.

Ramer was taken away and his wounds were washed and dressed, after which he took his departure up the street. His face was severely bruised and he received several blows on the crown of the head while he was retreating across the street. It is not believed the injuries will be of a more serious nature than to leave scars, which, perhaps, will always be visible.

The trouble grew out of the alleged persecution and slander of a young lady school teacher of this county, named Miss Gertrude Hayes. T. E. Norris is her brother-in-law, and she reported to him that Ramer was not only forcing his unwelcome attentions upon her, but had used gross and insulting language to her and had in various ways harrassed and annoyed her. She had endured it for a time, but finally was compelled to make the situation known to her brother-in-law, and the fracas of yesterday was the result.

The history of the matter from the first acquaintance of Miss Hayes with Mr. Ramer was about as follows, as it was learned from Mr. Norris, Miss Hayes and from Mark Walser, who has been retained to defend Norris.

Two years ago Miss Hayes came to Fresno from Alameda county, and secured a school three miles south of Fresno and taught the full term. This school was secured for her by Mr. Ramer, who acted as agent for obtaining schools for teachers, for a portion of the first month's salary.

Last fall he procured her a school at Letcher and she taught that, the term closing a short time ago. About a month before the close of the term she received a letter from Ramer, telling her that he would call at the school house on a certain day, and asking her to accompany him to Fresno. She intended to visit Fresno about that time, but had made arrangements to come with another person, and did so.

From that date, she says, the persecutions by Ramer began. He wrote her a letter which was so full of insults and threats that she burned it at once. In it he told her that her reputation was in his power and he would publish her to the world. She says that it did not stop at this. Had he contented himself with writing letters which could go no further than her hands, she could have put up with it, for awhile at least. But he visited the district where she was teaching school and talked with the patrons about her and did not scruple to attack her reputation by making the most serious charges against her. He threatened that he would compel her to leave the state and never return.

She endured this, for there seemed no remedy at hand. He wrote her, in all, nine letters, some not signed. The same threats and abuse were in all of them. The most of them she destroyed as fast as they were received, but a few remain and will be produced in court in a few days.

After her school closed she came to Fresno and registered at the Pleasanton hotel. In a short time there came a knock on her room door, and when she opened it, Ramer was there, and without waiting to be bidden, forced himself into the room, shut the door, stood with his back against it, and began to abuse her, calling her names of the most indecent and insulting character and threatening to ruin her name. She attempted to reach the hall to ring up the hotel office, but he would not permit her to come near the bell, but continued to threaten and abuse her until he wearied of it and took his departure.

She could endure the persecution no longer, and although she dreaded to do anything that would bring her name before the public, she resolved to lay the matter before her brother-in-law, T. E. Norris, who with his wife, lives at the Grand Central hotel. She did so.

That was on Thursday. Mr. Norris heard her story, and not wishing to take the law into his own hands sent for Mark Walser, to consult with him. Mr. Walser, in company with Mr. Norris, visited Miss Hayes at the Grand Central, and heard the whole matter. It was a case where the severest charge that could be placed against Ramer would be that he had disturbed the peace, and Miss Hayes hesitated to bring the matter before the public when a punishment so inadequate was all that could be expected. She wanted Ramer to cease his persecutions, and she would endure in silence the past insults. She said she could not step upon the street but that he put in an appearance at once and followed her and repeated his insults.

Thereupon Mr. Walser advised her to send to Visalia for her brothers, one of whom is a banker, and have them come to Fresno, pay a personal visit to Ramer and talk business to him; then compel him to sign a statement that he had lied about her and slandered her, and when he had done that, tell him that if he ever repeated the offense it would place him in a position of the most extreme embarrassment.

Mr. Norris did not seem inclined to act on this advice. He said if her brothers came to Fresno and heard of the insults offered their sister they would hunt Ramer up and kill him on the spot, and that would be a bad state of affairs, how much so ever it might not be understood.

To avoid trouble Miss Hayes went into the country several miles on a visit to friends named Shipp. She had not been there twenty minutes when Ramer arrived at the gate and called for her. She refused to go out and he did his talking to Mrs. Shipp and repeated his slanders regarding Miss Hayes, and demanded that she come out and see him. This she would not do, and he thereupon handed Mrs. Shipp a letter to give Miss Hayes and drove away. Mrs. Shipp read the letter, which was open, and was so shocked at the insulting language contained in it that she refused to let the girl see it.

Yesterday she came to town and stopped with her sister at the Grand Central. In the afternoon she walked out on the street and Ramer put in his appearance. In a very short time the loaded hose was applied.

The affair drew a large crowd and the cause of the trouble was soon understood. In the afternoon Miss Hayes had Ramer arrested on a charge of disturbing the peace. Justice St. John released him on $250 bail. His trial is set for next Wednesday. The specific charge against him is that he forced his way into her room at the Pleasanton and insulted and abused her. The date of the preliminary examination of Norris has not yet been set.

Ramer is well known to the school trustees of this county. For a number of years he has been agent for books, desks, charts and other school supplies. He was for a long time, and may still be, agent for the Bancroft Company. A number of persons in Fresno say that this is not the first time he has been charged with forcing his attentions upon girls. Once in the Barton a gentleman who sat behind him heard him make an indecent remark to a young lady who sat near him. She was evidently much annoyed and shocked by his persistent and ungentlemanly attentions, and he desisted only when the gentleman behind him gave him a warning that a continuance of his remarks to the young lady would result in a scene right there which would eclipse in realistic blood and thunder anything that had appeared on the stage in twenty years.

At another time he called at a school house where a lady was in charge, and asked her to use her influence with the trustees to induce them to buy supplies of him. Upon her refusal to do so, he called her names which he would not have dared use toward a man.

SENIOR RECEPTION.

BRILLIANT SOCIAL BY THE HIGH SCHOOL.

The Alumni Adopts Vigorous Resolutions Against the Board of Education.

The annual reception given in honor of the graduating class by the alumni and middle class took place at the Hughes hotel last evening. It was a brilliant affair socially. The attendance was large. The spacious dining room of the hotel had been cleared for the occasion and after being well waxed the floor was in excellent condition for dancing. About the parlors on the second floor were arranged tables for games for those who did not care to dance. Scarlet incandescent lights were arranged about the dining room, this being the chosen color of the honored class of the evening.

The social opened with dancing. At the conclusion of the second number the following program was rendered: Address of welcome, Sterling Patterson; reply, Harold Nock; piano duet, Misses Edna Warner and Eva Glenn; recitation, Miss Maude Pierce; vocal solo, Miss Mabel Caine; violin solo, Miss Alice Applegarth; recitation, Millidge G. Sherwood; vocal solo, Hal Freman; piano solo, Miss Elsie Smith; address, Professor Heaton; song by the graduating class.

Dancing and games were continued the remainder of the evening. Frank A. Homan, class of '93, acted as master of ceremonies. Excellent music was furnished by Professor Myer and Theodore Reitz.

These annual receptions serve the purpose of class reunions, as they are attended by all the alumni. They are always very enjoyable affairs.

In the midst of the merrymaking the news that Professor Heaton had not been retained was received. Expressions of indignation were heard on every hand. A committee was appointed and the following resolutions were adopted:

"WHEREAS, The board of education has seen fit to dispense with the services of Professor Heaton, and

"WHEREAS, Said action is clearly in direct opposition to the wishes of a great majority of the people of Fresno city, therefore be it

"Resolved, By the alumni of the Fresno high school here assembled that we express our deepest contempt for so flagrant violation of the will of the people, and be it

Resolved, That we feel that such action of the board will produce an irreparable loss to the schools of the city, and further be it

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be presented to the Board of Education and to Professor Heaton and that they be printed in the REPUBLICAN and the Expositor.

S. W. CARTWRIGHT,
A. C. OLNEY,
J. BERNHARD,
Committee.

Joseph Bernhard made a vigorous speech in support of the resolution.

Professor Heaton responded and expressed his gratitude for the sympathy expressed for him by the alumni. He asked that all give their best support to the schools, no matter who his successor may be. "The school must go on."

Three cheers for Professor Heaton were proposed and were given with a will.

It is expected that the building will be finished by September 1st.

AMICABLY SETTLED.

The Extra Park Deputies to Be Withdrawn.

PRISONERS WILL BE WORKED

Deputies Wanted by the Tax Collector—Matter of the Horticultural Commissioners.

The matter at issue between Sheriff Scott and the Supervisors was practically and amicably settled yesterday by Mr. Scott appearing before the board and saying that he would undertake to see that such prisoners as are required to do work around the court house park or elsewhere will comply with orders. This involves the assumption that these prisoners will be fed without increased cost to the county, and was accepted as perfectly satisfactory by the board. The extra deputies who have been put on for the purpose of cleaning up and attending to the county park will be dispensed with, as they were only hired by the day. The saving to the county will be considerable.

An order was passed in reference to the bill of Sheriff Scott for the board of prisoners for the month of April, 1896. The matter came before the board on continuance, and on motion of Sayre, seconded by Letcher, the claim of $466.50 was allowed in the sum of $362.37. The difference represents the extra charge for the third meal disputed by the county. Mr. Scott's case is in the hands of Attorney C. C. Merriam, but it is believed the matter will be satisfactorily adjusted without expense to the county.

The question of signing the treasury count again came up, but Chairman Wickersham stated that District Attorney Snow had not yet prepared his written opinion, having been incessantly occupied with the Armenian murder case. It was the opinion of Mr. Sayre and other members that something should be done to settle the matter before the board adjourned, which will probably be today.

Tax Collector Moodey asked for more deputies to enable him to keep up with the county work in his department, which is very heavy at this time of the year.

Letcher spoke of the repeated censures of the Board of Supervisors by recent grand juries and said he regretted there is not an equalization of salaries. He admitted that Mr. Moodey now receives only his own salary and no perquisites in the way of allowance for deputies, but was opposed to further appointments of deputies, anyhow.

Wickersham said it was not in the power of the board to touch salaries, which are fixed by the county government act. He considered the tax collector, assessor, sheriff or any other public official ought to receive the full salary which the act allowed him. Letcher said there was no provision under the act for the appointment of deputies. Wickersham said the sheriff is allowed an under sheriff and three deputies; the district attorney is allowed three deputies and so on. In his opinion if the tax collector or any other officer requires help to keep up with the county work, temporarily, he should be allowed such help and not have to pay it out of his own salary.

On motion of Sayre the report of the road viewers in the case of J. C. Cooper's petition for a highway was accepted and action on the matter deferred till the July meeting.

Letcher then brought up the motion of the previous day that the services of the three horticultural commissioners, McDonald, Ross and Baird, be dispensed with. He pointed out that at this season of the year they have nothing to do and the expense to the county is a heavy one. Chairman Wickersham said he supposed Mr. Letcher did not want to abolish the offices.

Letcher said it amounted to the same thing at present, if the services of the missioners were dispensed with, so far as economy is concerned. The commissioners can be reappointed when necessary. Garrett seconded Letcher's motion which was carried, and the board adjourned.

PRICE IMPROVING.

Fincher Says He Did Not Want to Kill Him.

John L. Price, who was first cowhided and then shot by V. B. Fincher at Herndon day before yesterday, is improving, no serious symptoms having developed. He is a married man and has a large family residing with him at his ranch. He is a son of his church.

Fincher claims that the rancher insulted his wife about six months ago, but at the time circumstances were such that he could not carry out his intention of punishing Price. He says that if he had the same thing to do over again he would repeat the performance. Fincher does not seem to be much disturbed over the trouble which he has gotten himself into. When Price came riding up to him at Herndon and began shooting Fincher remained seated on the ground and emptied his pistol. He says he could easily have killed his antagonist had he so desired.

WEE KINDERGARTNERS

THEIR CLOSING EXERCISES AT EINSTEIN HALL.

A Large Crowd Turns Out in the Morning to See Them.

The closing exercises of the Fresno Free Kindergarten at Einstein's hall yesterday morning were attended by a large number of persons who do not usually keep such unfashionable hours as 10 o'clock. But the interest felt in the work done for the little ones induced many men of business to leave their posts, and society ladies to go out early.

The following was the program: Piano solo, Professor M. M. Meyer; "Ring Song;" "Salute and Pledge to the Flag;" "Flag Song;" national anthem, "America;" solo, "Rhapsodie Hongreuse," Liszt, Professor M. M. Meyer; "Ring Song;" song, "Golden Sunshine;" "Motion Song," "A Little Boy's Walk;" game, "The Sick Dolly;" song, the Wind;" game, "The Bootblacks;" "Song of the Sewing Machine," with musical accompaniment; game, "The Garden Beds;" game, "A Trade Game;" game, "The Meadow;" game, "Little House Maids;" physical culture exercises; skipping game; "Goodbye Song."

The children went through their share of the program in a way to show that they had been drilled almost to mechanical precision, and yet by no other discipline than kindness and firmness. The credit for the performance is largely due to Miss Moore, who has labored, in season and out of season, to make her little charges healthy, merry and wise. The lady patrons of the kindergarten were present in full force, and were liberally congratulated on the result of their noble work.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills, which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge, that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, laxatives or other remedies are then not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

HEATON IS VOTED OUT

Meeting of the City Board of Education.

MANY CITIZENS IN ATTENDANCE

Professor McNiel Likewise Fails to Secure a Re-election for Next Year.

The city school board last night signified by the votes of Trustees Eden, Monroe and Cummings its intention not to re-employ City Superintendent Heaton. There was a large attendance of citizens, among whom was the committee of twenty-five appointed to present to the board the resolutions adopted at Thursday's mass meeting. Professor W. J. McNiel, teacher of sciences, was also left off the list of teachers for the coming year.

The board did not come together until 8 o'clock. Chairman Eden stated that the purpose of the meeting was the selection of teachers for the high school and a city superintendent. The president then asked if any of the citizens present had anything to say to the board.

T. C. White then stepped forward and presented the resolutions adopted at the mass meeting of Thursday. In presenting the petition Mr. White stated that the mass meeting was composed of representative citizens who pay over one-half of the taxes of the city. As all the members of the board excepting Mr. Church had read the entire resolutions in the REPUBLICAN only the direct resolution was read.

E. G. Chaddock spoke for Professor Heaton and urged the board to give respectful consideration to the resolutions presented by the committee of twenty-five. H. C. Tupper and Mrs. H. C. Warner spoke to a similar purpose.

Mrs. F. M. Miller spoke of Professor Heaton's reputation as an educator and his influence with the pupils. Louis Einstein desired that the citizens should be apprised of the reasons for not re-electing Professor Heaton. No answer was forthcoming and Monroe moved, seconded by Cummings, that the board proceed to ballot for high school teachers.

Trustee George E. Church spoke in favor of Professor Heaton. A year ago he was willing to discharge the superintendent had the board been unanimous. This inclination was due to personal irritation toward Prof. Heaton, who in over-zeal in behalf of the schools would not consider that anyone else had opinions in the matters. This had been lost evident during the past year. Now in cool deliberation, while not considering Mr. Heaton an ideal superintendent, Mr. Church thought that it would be undesirable to some extent to bring a new man here.

As to the feeling between Mr. Heaton and some of the teachers, Mr. Church had made a thorough investigation. He had visited all but three teachers and with few exceptions all were in favor of the superintendent's retention. These few exceptions, however, were not of such a nature that they should be taken cognizance of by the board.

Colin Chisholm, ex-member of the board, said that it would be a "burning shame" to discharge Mr. Heaton.

Trustee Cummings then made a brief statement. He had opposed Mr. Heaton last year from honest purpose. He had abided by the action of the board and for the past year had treated the Professor politely.

As no one else had anything to say a ballot was taken. The vote on retaining the high school teachers was as follows: Chester Rowell 5, Miss Cora Rowell 5, W. J. McNiel 1, Miss Curtis 5, Mrs. Curran 5, Professor Heaton 2. This of course decided that Professor Heaton was not to be retained. The result was received in silence and the meeting adjourned.

LETTER FROM SELMA.

Prosperous Town and Intelligent People.

EDITOR REPUBLICAN:—Selma has all the elements necessary to make one of the most prosperous and thriving places in the San Joaquin valley. With live businessmen and great resources to draw from, it will move on to renewed prosperity. Some 25 or 30 of the business men take, and have been taking and reading the MORNING REPUBLICAN for years. They recognize it as the great interior daily of the San Joaquin valley, and Fresno as not only the greatest interior city, but the very center and life of Fresno county. The REPUBLICAN furnishes the news of the world and is delivered at Selma ten hours in advance of morning San Francisco papers.

Selma has nine churches and pastors for each. I could only find four saloons, and consider myself enterprising as a prospector when I go into a new place. In hotels Selma seems to be deficient, the largest one being closed, but for all that I found at the German hotel, kept by Mrs. V. G. Forney, one of the best managed hotels it has been my fortune to patronize up and down the Pacific coast. H. F. B.

MRS. LEE OBJECTS.

Says Gregory Bros. Swore Falsely Regarding Their Estate.

SACRAMENTO, June 12.—Mrs. Bruce B. Lee this afternoon filed an objection in Judge Catlin's court to the discharge of Gregory Brothers Company, insolvent debtors, from their debts.

The head of the firm is ex-Mayor Eugene J. Gregory, whom Mrs. Lee recently had arrested for embezzlement, but who was discharged at the preliminary examination.

Mrs. Lee now alleges that the debtors swore falsely in their schedules and petition; that they concealed part of their estate; that they influenced improperly certain of their creditors; that they are guilty of fraud, and that they obtained money from her by false pretenses.

Gregory Brothers were given until tomorrow to file their answer, when the matter will be set for hearing.

AID FOR INSURGENTS.

The Bermuda Will Carry Another Party to Cuba.

NEW YORK, June 13.—The World this morning says: The steamship Bermuda was to have left Philadelphia last night with another cargo of arms and ammunition for the insurgents. The presence in this city during the last fortnight of Colonel Francesco Leyda Vidal has been the subject of considerable comment among the Cubans. Vidal was in command of the last party of filibusters that the Bermuda carried to Cuba.

Yesterday morning Vidal received a secret order from the junta and he and his companions left the hotel at once. Each man carried a machete in a canvas sheath. They went to Jersey City, where they were joined by a dozen more Cubans and all took the train for Philadelphia.

These, with others already on the spot, comprised the expedition that was expected to sail on the Bermuda.

The expedition consists of fifty men, among them being several physicians who carry with them a full supply of medicines and surgical instruments. Stowed away in the hold of the Bermuda, are 1000 rifles, a Hotchkiss gun and a large number of machetes.

JOHN CRAIG HANGED

PAID THE PENALTY FOR MURDERING HIS WIFE.

Little to Say Regarding the Killing of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter.

FOLSOM, June 12.—John Craig, three times a murderer, was hanged at Folsom at 10.02 today. There could not have been a more perfect execution. The condemned man was completely resigned to his fate, and walked to the gallows as coolly as though going to a wedding.

As he stood on the gallows waiting for the attendants to strap his feet, he looked down at the upturned faces and his eyes fell on Joseph Hunter, one of the sons of the old couple whom Craig so cruelly butchered two years ago.

No sooner did Craig see Hunter than he gave a sudden start and riveted his eyes full upon him and slowly shook his head. He then said, in a voice that could be heard throughout the room, "Oh, Joe, I love you." He then raised his eyes to heaven and, closing them, remained in that position until the trap was sprung.

Craig shot into eternity without so much as a short breath or twitch of a muscle, and except for his slowly decreasing pulse beat there was nothing to indicate that he was not killed instantly.

Those who watched in Craig's cell last night say that he got but little if any sleep, and that he complained of more or less of pain from the wound inflicted by himself yesterday morning when he attempted to commit suicide.

This morning he was visited by the prison chaplain, to whom he announced himself as thoroughly resigned to his fate, and at 9 o'clock he was baptized in the Protestant faith.

To the last he maintained that the shooting of his wife, which was the crime for which he was executed, was purely accidental. He had little to say regarding the killing of Mr. and Mrs. Hunter and that little was to the effect that they were instrumental in taking his children from him. To the last he expressed affection for his children and declared that his greatest sorrow was that they should have a father who died on the gallows.

RUMORS OF DUNHAM.

Discharge of Firearms Near San Miguel Causes Excitement.

BAKERSFIELD, June 12.—It was reported on the street that a constable from Mojave and a citizen had caught Dunham near Havilah, last night, but the report is not credited here.

SAN JOSE, June 12.—A telephone message at 8 o'clock from San Miguel says the officers had surrounded a clump of willows there all night. About 3 o'clock this morning there was a lot of shooting, some thirty shots being fired. The messenger did not know the cause or the result.

Dunham is supposed to be in the willows, and a man has been sent from San Miguel to find out about the shooting and situation this morning.

Several dispatches have been received from San Miguel, San Luis Obispo and other points concerning Dunham, and all state that Dunham not only has not been seen, but they don't think he will be in those localities.

Venezuelan Commission.

WASHINGTON, June 12.—The Venezuelan boundary commission held its regular meeting today, all the members being present. Its proceedings quite effectually disposed of recent reports of an early conclusion of the commission's labors. A number of important communications were presented and considered, among them being a preliminary report from Professor Burr, now at The Hague, engaged in making an examination of Dutch archives.

Popular Corsage Decorations.

It has been the habit to laugh at the Johnny with his enormous chrysanthemum. Now the women are taking to the big flower, although not necessarily a chrysanthemum. To be up in date the feminine corsage must be decorated with a flower of tremendous proportions —a peony, a wild rose, a lily or a single dahlia. Any of these flowers will do, but the blossom must be as big as it can be got.

The idea is a great deal like the sunflower craze of 10 or 15 years ago, when the emblem of aestheticism was worn by everybody. It is true that the sunflower was not so handsome as some of the flowers that are popular now, so that the woman of today is better than she was when everything was "precious" and angularity was regarded as the outward significance of inward culture. The single lily seen must be fastened in the middle of the corsage, and if the woman has some difficulty in seeing over the top of it, so much the more stylish she.—New York Press.

A Revived Fashion.

Paris designers are making a graceful princess gown resembling a directoire redingote—a revived fashion handsomely improved upon. One model is of sage green etamine, of silky texture, with petticoat front of lustrous shot silk reflecting pink, green and pale gold shades. The large revers, stock collar and sleeve trimmings are of sage green velvet. Small buttons of brown and gold fasten the narrow shirred vest, and three very large ones to match are on either side of the waist portion beyond the points of the revers. Another model is cut out square in the neck, with guimpe, and full sleeves of Marie Antoinette brocade.

The Women Voted.

Woman's suffrage was tried at the annual elections in the Episcopal churches in Oakland, Cal., recently and proved a great success. The women turned out in large numbers to exercise their new privilege and interested themselves greatly in the elections. They did not in any case form a woman's party arrayed against the men, but voted for the regular nominees.

Fleshmaking Food.

Cream gruel, according to an eminent English authority, is the ideal nourishment for thin folk. A teacupful taken at night immediately before retiring is said to give marvelous results. To be at its best it must be perfectly made, then thinned with sweet cream. Taken in that condition and warm it is agreeable as well as fattening, and produces just that sense of satisfied hunger essential to ideal rest. It is claimed that perseverance in the treatment yields such apparent results that the cheeks can be seen to expand from day to day.

More Desirable.

Mrs. Binn—I understand that man in the flat under us is at work on a patent contrivance that will make a fire consume its own smoke.

Mr. Binn—Well, I wish he would turn his attention to some device that would compel him to burn his own fuel. He coal bin adjoins ours.—Yonkers Statesman.

FOR LITTLE FOLKS.

Skipping the Rope.

Winter time has fled away,
Spring has had her gentle sway,
Summer surely must be near,
When the skipping ropes appear.
With a skip, skip,
And a trip, trip,
As thus we rise and fall.
In yard and street
The little feet
Are coming to the call!

Oh, so many tricks to do
That our mothers also knew—
"In the Front Door," "Baking Bread,"
"Chase the Fox" and "Needle Thread."
With a skip, skip,
And a trip, trip,
For so the leader saith:
With a hop, jump,
And a thump, thump,
Until you're out of breath.

Hear the counting, sure and slow;
To a hundred they must go.
Not a hand or arm should swerve,
While the rope describes its curve,
With a skip, skip,
And a trip, trip,
Until the task is done;
With cheeks so red,
And rolled hose!—
Bravo, my little one!

Boys may leap and vault so high,
But none was ever known to try
To master this soft, little spring
That is so intricate a thing.
With a skip, skip,
And a trip, trip—
Oh, may I always hear
That pit pat pit
That seems to fit
This blossom time of year!
—Anna E. Patten in St. Nicholas.

Indian Children.

Although Indian children have their games and good times as well as their more civilized brothers and sisters, they also have much hard work to do and are taught to help their poor tired mothers almost as soon as they learn to walk. One of the principal duties of Indian children is that of supplying their camp or village with water. These camps are always near a river or stream, for of course wandering tribes of Indians cannot have wells or cisterns, and from the river the children must carry up to the lodges all the water used in cooking.

In this work they call to their aid their playmates, the dogs, always plentiful in Indian villages. To the collars of the dogs are fastened two long, light poles, one on each side, that drag on the ground some distance behind them. On these poles, about half way to the ground, is fixed the bottle or earthen jar that is to be filled with water, and then the dogs are driven down to the river.

Some of the larger boys have ponies, to which they attach heavier poles in the same way that the light ones are fastened to the dogs, and on which they can carry as much as a barrel of water at a time.

At the river side the children have great fun while filling their various jars and bottles. They duck and splash each other, run, scream, laugh and often forget entirely that the village is waiting for its daily supply of water, until the shrill voice of some squaw mother warns them that they are neglecting their duty, and if they do not attend to it at once they will have to suffer the consequences.—Detroit Free Press.

The Art of Studying.

A girl who entered the manual training school two months ago complains of the lessons she has to learn—so many pages of one study and so many of another. Just think of it! The actual number certainly appeared formidable, but an investigation would no doubt prove that what she really had to learn was a lesson of fair length. The secret of study in the higher branches is to read the pages assigned slowly and carefully, making mental note of—or marking if you dare not trust your memory—those parts which you feel need to be learned by heart. You will be astonished at the shortness of the list. One reading will fix the incidents of ten pages of history well in mind. The dates and names would not fill half a page. The same is true of spelling. Suppose your teacher gives you two or three pages from "Evangeline" or a history or geography. The way to learn the lesson is to select the words which have silent or double letters, those involving ei or ie. Learn that list and you will have accomplished what your teacher intended you to do. —Brooklyn Eagle.

TO GAIN WEIGHT.

Pale, Thin People Usually are Diseased.

The First Step Necessary to Gain Flesh is Health, then Proper Food for both Body and Nerves.

An Old Soldier's Clear, Straightforward Statement.

From the World-Herald, Omaha, Neb.

Florence, the cozy little suburb to the north of Omaha is agog with excitement. The older generation, of which the population of Florence is mostly composed, are apparently getting young again, and vie with the younger generation in feats of strength and agility.

A World-Herald reporter was attracted by the evidences of renewed activity of some of the oldest inhabitants of the village and inquired the cause. Mr. Andrew Finkenkelev, who was a member of Company B of the First Iowa Volunteers during the war, made the following explanation of his strong, healthy appearance, when for years he had been crippled or compelled to lie on a sick bed with a complication of disorders resulting from the hardships which he was compelled to endure. He said:

"In July, 1886, while my company was on the march through to Austin, Texas, my leg troubled me considerably. But I thought first it was nothing but a recurrence of the chloes of a sprain I had received during the war by my horse falling on me, but the pain soon increased to such a degree that I was compelled to ask for medical treatment. The surgeons pronounced the cause rheumatism, and that of the worst order. At Alexander, Louisiana, I was in such a wretched condition, though I continued to march with my company, that the excessive heat overcame me and I was sunstruck, remaining unconscious several hours. As a result of the sunstroke, I was unable and have ever since been unable to remain in the glare of the sun, even on a moderately cool day, and every summer I have been overcome by the heat so that I would be compelled to give up my work. The feeling that I experienced was a sort of bearing down on my head, as though a heavy body was resting there and at times it would come quickly, like a blow and I would unconsciously stoop as though involuntarily exerting an obstacle to preventing itself to my head. This bearing down gradually grew into a steady pain which increased until it seemed as though my head would burst.

"There was also a constant ringing in my ears rendering it very difficult for me to hear. Coupled with this, palpitation of the heart caused me great trouble, and this grew so that the slightest shock to my nerves from a slight noise or other disturbance would set my heart to thumping against my chest and I would tremble from head to foot as though I had St. Vitus' dance. Three times, from slight circumstances the palpitation was so great that I fainted and remained unconscious for from seven to ten hours, at which times my relatives despaired of my life. In addition to this the rheumatism, which had been felt only in my ankle, began to work up my right leg until the whole right side of my body was affected by it, so much indeed, that my head was drawn down to my right shoulder. I was totally unfit for work. I had no strength and flesh. I tried every physician who was reported to me to have a special knowledge of my case, but after long trials, I only experienced temporary relief from the pain. I was confined to my bed during the greater part of the cold weather of each year.

"For twenty-eight years I have consulted physicians and taken their prescriptions without deriving any material benefit. My ailments increased in intensity until I was assured that there was no hope for me. During last year I went into the butcher business, but the dampness from the ice materially increased my rheumatic pains to such an extent that I was not only compelled to quit the business, but was confined to my house and bed for nearly six months.

"I had given up all faith of being a well man again, when in November last I read in the World-Herald a case of a man who had been entirely cured from the ailments from which I was suffering, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. Though the name did not at first strike my fancy, on November 28, I purchased a box. In a week I was astonished to know that I felt better than I had for six months past, and before I had used half a box I was sure that I had found a cure for my ailments. The ringing in my ears began to lessen in volume and finally left me. That was the first effect I experienced aside from an increased appetite. The pain from the rheumatism gradually left me, so that within one week from the time I took my first pill I was able to sit up in bed. On January 1st, I was able to go out and walk around a little. The palpitations of my heart entirely ceased. On February 9, I was so thoroughly cured, that I accepted a position as night watchman in the Forest Lawn Cemetery, remaining out of doors from 6 P. M. until 6 A. M. I have gained in weight from 143 pounds which I weighed in November last, to 172 pounds which I weigh now.

"The rheumatism has entirely left me, except when I have too much walking to do during the night, my right ankle pains me a little, but only when I do too much walking. I now feel like a well man and am good for forty years yet. I am fifty years old and have resided in Florence nine years, having come to Omaha in 1871. I have recommended the pills to nine people in this village all of whom are taking them and experiencing the same beneficial effects which I have received. I used nine boxes of the pills."

Mr. B. W. Cowan, keeper of a general store at Florence was also seen by the reporter. Mr. Cowan is also an old soldier, having been a member of the 144th Infantry, Company C, and the latter of Company M of the First Minnesota Cavalry. Mr. Cowan stated that he contracted chronic diarrhea while he was in the army and has never since been entirely well. He tried one remedy after another in the preceding years without any relief. He stated that he had taken two boxes of the wonderful Pink Pills and was now almost thoroughly cured, so much so in fact that he has discontinued their use.

He was also paralyzed in the left side of his face, the mouth being drawn up at the left corner, and he was entirely unable to move the muscles of his forehead or to close his left eye. He states that he believes it is owing to the use of the Pink Pills that he has recovered the use of his left eyelid, which, prior to his taking the pills, had been fastened down by a physician so that the sight would not be destroyed from the eye filling with dust, and he believes to recommend to the Pink Pills. He has gained fifteen pounds in weight since last October, and feels healthier and stronger than at any time since the war. He intends to recommence using the pills with the expectation of a complete recovery from the paralysis.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are considered an unfailing specific for such diseases as locomotor ataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus' dance, sciatica, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous headache, the after effects of la grippe, pallid complexions, that dread feeling resulting from nervous prostration; all diseases resulting from vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofula, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. In men they effect a radical cure in all cases arising from mental worry, overwork, or excesses of whatever nature. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all dealers, or will be sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 (they are never sold in bulk or by the 100), by addressing Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

Judge Seawell's Opinion.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 12.—Judge Seawell recently wrote an opinion that the county government act of 1893 does not apply to San Francisco, and that, in consequence, public officers elected two years ago are not entitled to hold office for four years. The judge today repeated this decision pro forma in the test suit of Justice of the Peace Groezinger against the Board of Election Commissioners. A demurrer to the complaint was sustained and judgment entered for the defendant. The case will be appealed to the supreme court.
